NARRATIVE:

Guerrero has an extensive criminal history that includes multiple arrests for battery and inflicting corporal injury on spouse/ cohabitant, along with willful cruelty to a child, and trespassing. He has served two prison commitments, the longest term being 24 months. He is a "Chivas" gang member who was released most recently from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on August 18th, 2012 after serving a term for inflicting corporal injury on a spouse. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in March 2013 after Guerrero absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Guerrero qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for inflicting corporal injury on a spouse is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His status as a documented gang member, prior history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
